

High & Mighty brews are made with righteous conviction. We're not just brewers – we're beer-evangelists. We're the Clergy of Zymurgy, the Priests of Yeasts, the Joyful Congregation of High Fermentation. Every High and Mighty offering is a powerful wallop for the spirit. Drink one and you're going to say "Smite me again, barkeep!"

Beer of the Gods is a refreshing, but cheeky, German-style beer. It's light, low in alcohol, and easy to drink, but has enough hop bitterness to please even Zeus himself. Sure, we know those well-endowed beers will get all the press, but, just once, how about some props for the little guy?

Very possibly the world's only India Pale Lager, Purity of Essence is a hoppy beer designed for people who think they don't like hops. Made with 100% German malts and hops, it has plenty of hop bitterness, and all the flavor you need, but none of the harshness you find in many IPA's.

A heavenly brown ale, St. Hubbins is lovingly brewed in the monastic tradition, by heathens. Luxuriate in its layers of chocolate, vanilla, licorice, and just the right amount of warming alcohol. Fermented with Trappist Ale yeast, and unfiltered and unpasteurized for maximum flavor.

Alcohol by volume: 6.5%.

Available in 22 oz bottles, and 1/2 bbl, 30 liter, or 1/6 bbl kegs.

Our luscious, creamy stout is brewed with loads of organic raw cacao beans and fermented with Belgian Ale yeast. Like velvety, deep, dark chocolate in your glass. Leave those sugary sweet chocolate drinks for the hoi polloi – the Beast is for aesthetes and sophisticates only.
